

22556VIC

Course in the Management of Asthma Risks and Emergencies in the workplace

Unit code VU22927

Course Duration : 2 Hours (with pre-course work)

This course can be done in 3 hours with no pre-course work – private bookings only

This accredited course will provide participants with the knowledge and skills to develop an Asthma management plan and provide asthma related first aid interventions in the workplace. It is aimed at a variety of participants including Teachers, Child care workers, aged care workers, disability workers, sports coaches, youth workers and designated workplace First Aiders/officers.

Covered in this course are the following elements

- State/territory regulatory requirements
- Assess emergency asthma situations
- Asthma triggers
- Recognition of the signs & symptoms of Asthma
- Communication of incident details and documentation requirements
- Risk assessment & development of risk minimisation strategies
- Emergency management plans for Asthma

Qualification

After Successful completion of the course the candidate will receive a statement of attainment for the nationally accredited course 22556VIC Management of Asthma Risks and Emergencies in the workplace

Certificate Currency

It is recommended by Peak Clinical Bodies, some state/territory regulations and Education sector authorities, that this course is undertaken every 3 years.

Entry Requirements

There are no pre-requisites or specific entry requirements, however Learners should have Language, Literacy & Oracy competencies equivalent to Australian Core skills Framework Level 3. This requires a candidate to be able to work independently, read & source relevant information or resources and be able to complete written workplace documentation as needed.